The Business Humanitarian Forum (BHF), established in 1999, encourages better understanding and cooperation between the public and private sectors, and works with partners to address humanitarian problems and promote sustainable economic development. The BHF does this by arranging for direct private sector involvement and investment in areas where it is needed, and by providing training and facilitating dialogue between organizations and private companies.

The BHF builds awareness that business has a strong, long-term economic, political and social interest in supporting the work of the humanitarian community, and that private sector investment is the key element for economic development and overcoming long-term humanitarian problems. Both sectors are essential for the stabilization and social progress of developing and post-conflict societies.

The BHF has initiated and carried out several reconstruction projects in post-conflict areas and helped create partnerships between businesses, humanitarian agencies and local governments. The BHF has also sponsored contact groups, workshops and conferences to heighten awareness of the important role business can play in alleviating humanitarian problems. The BHF is a non-profit association based in Geneva and was founded with the encouragement of former UN Secretary General Kofi Annan.
